So they won't know where I've gone.

Freight train, freight train, comin' round the bend

Freight train, freight train, gone again

One of these days turn that train around

Go back to my hometown.

Freight train freight train goin' so fast

Freight train freight train goin' so fast

Please don't tell what train I'm on

So they won't know where I've gone.

One more place I'd like to be

One more place I'd love to see

To watch those old blue ridge mountains climb

As I ride ol' number nine.

Freight train freight train goin' so fast

Freight train freight train goin' so fast

Please don't tell what train I'm on

So they won't know where I've gone.

When I die please bury me deep

Down at the end of Bleecker street

So I can hear ol' number nine

As she goes rollin' by.

Freight train freight train goin' so fast

Freight train freight train goin' so fast

Please don't tell what train I'm on

So they won't know where I've gone.

"Freight Train" is an American folk song written by Elizabeth Cotten in the early 20th century, and popularized during the American folk revival and British skiffle⁽¹⁾ period of the 1950s and 1960s. By Cotten's own account in the 1985 BBC series Down Home, she composed "Freight Train" as a teenager (sometime between 1906 and 1912), inspired by the sound of the trains rolling in on the tracks near her home in North Carolina
