

Someday Soon

There is a young man that I know, his age is twenty-one,

Comes from down in southern Colorado.

Just out of the service and he's looking for his fun.

Someday soon goin' with him, someday soon.

My parents cannot stand him, 'cause he rides the rodeo.

My father says that he will leave me crying.

I would follow him right down the toughest road I know.

Someday soon, going with him, someday soon.

And when he comes to call, my Pa ain't got a good word to say.

Guess that he was just as wild in his younger days.

So, blow, you old blue northern, blow my love to me,

He's driving in tonight from California.

He loves his damned old rodeo as much as he loves me.

Someday soon, goin' with him, someday soon.

Someday soon, going with him, someday soon.

"Someday Soon" was composed by Canadian singer/songwriter Ian Tyson and recorded by him and his then wife, Sylvia, as the duo Ian & Sylvia in 1964. The song has been recorded by many artists, including The Kingston Trio (1965), Judy Collins (1969), Lynn Anderson (1970), Tanya Tucker (1975), and Crystal Gayle, (1978).
