

You Always Hurt the One You Love

lyrics by Allan Roberts and music by Doris Fisher.

You always hurt the one you love,

The one you shouldn't hurt at all.

You always take the sweetest rose,

And crush it till the petals fall.

You always break the kindest heart

With a hasty word you can't recall.

So, if I broke your heart last night ,

It's because I love you most of all.

(Repeat from top)
